Maison Blanche Creates a James Beard Foundation Scholarship Funded With Proceeds from the First Annual Fête du Beaujolais

February, 2012, Longboat Key Florida – Chef Jose Martinez, a Michelin Star winner, James Beard Nominee for Best Chef (South), and proprietor of Maison Blanche, rated by ZAGAT® 2012 as the best restaurant on Longboat Key, announced today that the first annual Fête du Beaujolais celebration at the restaurant on November 17th 2011 raised over $2,500 to fund the Jose & Victoria Martinez Maison Blanche of Longboat Key Florida Culinary Scholarship for the James Beard Foundation.

The Fete du Beaujolais celebrated the arrival of the November 2011 vintage of Beaujolais.

“ I believe The James Beard Foundation is the wellspring of America's culinary community” said Chef Martinez, “ I am elated to be a proactive participant with the institution dedicated to nurturing, and preserving America’s diverse culinary heritage and future.”

The James Beard Foundation Scholarship program helps aspiring culinary students realize their dreams by supporting them on a path to success in the rewarding world of the hospitality industry.

About Maison Blanche

Praised by foodies and visitors as Sarasota’s best, the chef has a Michelin Star for his Paris restaurant, is a James Beard Foundation nominee for Best Chef (South), a Longboat Key leading Zagat food rating of 27 and a 96% of positive survey responders.
